This tournament was high-lighted by Dan Russell of Gresham winning his fourth state title. This is only the third time a wrestler in the AAA state tournament has done this, and the first time in thirty-four years. As did Dave Baker of Parkrose and Lee Allen of Sandy, Russell went undefeated through high school while winning the four titles.

Senior Scott Glenn of West Albany took his third title at this meet. Joe Russell, Dan's brother was unable to try for his third title because a motorcycle accident the previous summer took him out of action.

130 pounds champion Naoya Nakai of Oregon City was a foreign exchange student from Japan.

When Ed Cavin of Crater was disqualified in the finals of the 168 pound class for flagrant misconduct, it took his team out of second place down to fifth.

This tournament was dedicated to Dr. Howard Westcott, former wrestling coach at Portland State University.
